COMPLETION OF THE UNION HOTEL

Another First-Class Hostelry Has Been Added to Richmond's List.

The management of the new Union Hotel, adjoining the Main-Street Station, have taken another step forward.
The hotel was recently purchased by Mr. Edgar Allan, Jr., and a movement was made at once to make it one of the leading hosteries of the city. Several thousands of dollars was put out in furniture and fixtures, and in a short while the hotel became known for its fare and room accommodations.
Mr. George Leigh, one of the best known young hotel men in the State, was engaged by Mr. Allan as manager, and under his direction the business at the hotel has grown to large proportions. In order to meet this business another outlay of several thousand dollars has just been made, with the result that the hotel is now supplied with the most modern of kitchen, dining-room, bath and toilet accessories, and accommodation to 250 persons is offered.
With the completion of this hotel, and under the management of the young men like Messrs. Allan and Leigh, the hotel accommodations of Richmond have advanced rapidly, and are now equal to the emergencies that arise in the advent of large bodies of people here in convention or otherwise.

Johnathan Offut.

Few are entirely free from it.
It may develop so slowly as to cause little if any disturbance during the whole period of childhood.
It may then produce irregularity of the stomach and bowels, dyspepsia, catarrh, and marked tendency to consumption before manifesting itself in much cutaneous eruption or glandular swelling.
It is best to treat it when it is quite first of itself, and for its complete eradication you can rely on

After one time during the connection, however many times the operator pushes the button.

NICKEL RETURNED.
Another unique device is the arrangement for nickel in the slot 'phones at public places. These are fixed so that it is absolutely necessary to put the nickel in before the central office can be reached.
After the nickel is put in it slips down half way. If the operator can give the desired connection, she touches a black button before her, and the nickel falls in the box at the telephone. If the operator cannot for any reason give the desired connection, she touches a brown button, and the nickel falls out into the man's hand.

Every section of the board is being arranged for the lines being used by four party line subscribers, and there are also arrangements for duplex telephone connections. A room with the three operators at the long, crescent-shaped board will sit the chief operator, two "trouble girls" to whom come complaints and inquiries of every character. A covered service office, now in Manchester, and an operator to make connections with Virginia towns. These have connections with any or all of the operators at the board.
The room is fitted up with electric fans, and is especially adapted to the use of the operators. It is handsomely fitted up with chairs, tables and lounges. Electric fans and magazines and papers are provided by the company. A covered service, tea and light refreshments upon an oil stove, all the expression of the company's thoughtfulness for its employees. Dainty china, glassware and linen have been provided, and everything will be done to make the room a comfortable and delightful lounging room.

BARKSDALE TO ANSWER GREEN

Thursday night, when prominent speakers will appear in his interest.
Mr. Clem Green, speaker for Senator Clay-tor in Roanoke last Friday night. Senator W. P. Barksdale, of Halifax, will reply to him for Senator Glass one night this week, and will doubtless stir the voters up, as he is a fine stumpster. Indications point strongly to the success of Mr.
Glass.

The three-cornered race in the Second is a pretty one. Messrs. Bryant, Maynard and Lawless are all fighting hard and are claiming the victory.
In discussing the situation last night, John N. Seabell, of Southampton, said:
"Dr. Bryant's strength is increasing every day, and it looks like he is a winner. I had a letter a few days ago from one of the most prominent Democrats in the Second District, who is familiar with the situation in that district, in which he says that Bryant will carry Newport News and divide the vote in the other parts of the Peninsula; will carry the counties of Princess Anne, Norfolk and Newport; divide the vote in the city of Norfolk and the county of Isle of Wight, and carry Southampton with practically a solid vote. Dr. Bryant and his friends are confident of victory." The Third District Committee will meet in the office of Chairman John C. Easley, of this city, next Wednesday, for the purpose of fixing the assessment of the expenses of the primary. The fight here is coming to be one of much interest.

THE BILL POSTERS

Mr. Burton, of Richmond, Elected Director at a Recent Meeting.

At the twelfth annual convention of the Associated Billposters and Distributors of the United States and Canada in Milwaukee, Mr. W. S. Burton, of this city, was elected a member of the Board of Directors.

The convention was a most successful affair. It was a great gathering and deserved all that is given it by a recent writer in the Milwaukee Sentinel, who says that it will pass into history as the most business-like, far and away the most harmonious and in the end productive of greater immediate results in the organization's history, and that the measures adopted will undoubtedly bring outdoor advertising in general and billpost-ing in particular into a still higher state of national efficiency. Two hundred delegates, including three from Great Britain (including the president of the United Kingdom Billposters Protective Association), met with the expressed purpose of reviewing the work of the past year and taking such steps through an open and vigorous expression in debate as will develop more harmonious and effective national supervision and guarantee.

THE TOBACCO MEN END THEIR SESSION

Mr. T. M. Carrington Again Chosen President.

NEW COMMITTEES APPOINTED

The Board of Governors Instructed to Select a Secretary—Mr. R. L. Taylor Discusses Tobacco Insurance Before the Association.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., July 26.—The National Tobaccoists' Convention adjourned this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, after re-electing Mr. T. M. Carrington, of Richmond, president, and transacting a considerable amount of other business.
The session was not long, however. It was called to order at 11:45, when the president announced the following committees:

On Revision of Constitution and By-laws—Messrs. T. B. Luckett, Clarksville, Tenn.; W. L. Petty, Rocky Mount, N. C.; G. W. Swain, Danville, Va.; J. A. Clark, Bedford City, Va.

Auditing Committee—Messrs. E. H.
Crew, Rocky Mount, N. C.; George R.
New, Lawrenceville, Va.; Dr. J. H. Huddle, Wilton, N. C.

Committee on Nominations—Messrs. D.
P. Eggleston, Drake's Branch, Va.; C.
D. Larus, Richmond, Va.; T. E. Roberts, Tennessee; W. W. Morton, Virginia; W.
H. Winston, North Carolina.

Mr. J. L. Wingo, chairman of the Committee on Insurance, reported to the effect that his committee expected to take up the matter of insurance in its various phases and confer on the subject with the insurance companies, so as to have a through report ready by the next annual meeting.

INSURANCE.
Mr. R. Lee Traylor, of Richmond, representing the Southeastern Tariff Association, was introduced and made a long and interesting talk on insurance of tobacco. He declared that tobacco insurance, under present conditions, was rather an undesirable risk, and that the local agents were generally more anxious to write the policies than the companies were willing to have them written. Because of the dangerous risks in insuring tobacco the rates are high, he said, but he made a number of suggestions relative to improvements that might be made in the insurance of tobacco, and he thought the rate might possibly be reduced. Mr. Traylor promised to extend, in behalf of his association, every possible consideration to the tobacco men, and declared that none would welcome improvement in tobacco insurance more than the members of his association.

The Nominating Committee reporting, the convention adopted the report by electing the following officers:

NEW OFFICERS.
President, T. M. Carrington, of Richmond.
Vice-president, T. D. Luckett, Clarksville, Tenn.

Board of Governors—M. H. Clarke, Clarksville, Tenn.; C. D. Larus, Richmond, Va.; J. A. Clark, Bedford City, Va.; S. H. Bolling, Petersburg, Va.; W. C. Reed, Richmond; W. T. Clark, Wilson, N. C.; J. M. Taylor, Richmond; J.
C. Hagan, Richmond; E. P. Eggleston, Drake's Branch, Va.; W. L. Petty, Rocky Mount, N. C.

These gentlemen will select a secretary.
They will also pass upon the recommendation of the Committee on Next Place of Meeting, to be made to the president and board later in the year.

President Carrington made a graceful address, acknowledging the honor of re-election. Short general congratulatory talks were also made by Mr. Luckett and others.

A MYSTERIOUS CASE

A Desperately Wounded Man Escapes
While Under Guard.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

LAWRENCEVILLE, VA., July 26.— Mr. John L. Hendrick, who was badly wounded in a street duel here some nights ago with Mr. Mitchell, is mysteriously missing and up to a late hour tonight nothing is known of his whereabouts.
He reported that he did not believe Mr. Hendrick would live till this morning. An hour later he re-entered the room and found to his surprise and consternation that the prisoner was gone.
How a man so weak that he could not turn over in bed could have dressed, crawled through a small window as he was obliged to do, and escape is remarkable.

Mr. Hendrick was regarded as in an extremely critical condition, and it is thought that he can hardly stand the hardships due to removal and secret escape.

PIEDMONT CONVENTION

Officers Elected for the Next Year, and Evangelizing Committee Appointed.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

MARTINSVILLE, July 26.—The annual convention of the Christian Church in the South Piedmont District, comprising the counties of Henry, Pittsylvania, Franklin, Campbell, Patrick and the cities of Lynchburg and Danville, which convened at this place Wednesday, adjourned yesterday.

The last day's session was given over almost entirely to report and discussion of the several committees. Prof. Williamson, president of Richmond Female Seminary; Prof. Hopwood, president of Milligan College, and Prof. J. W. Giles, president of Piedmont Business College, delivered able addresses on education.

One of the most interesting addresses of the convention was delivered by Prof.
Hopwood on "Duties and Qualifications of Church Officers."

At the afternoon session Rev. C. E.
Elmore and Hon. W. T. Shelton, of Chatham, delivered strong addresses on "Temperance and Reform."

Officers for the ensuing year elected at this convention are: Rev. P. F. Bulhard, of Lynchburg, president; J. H. Spencer, Martinsville, vice-president; Frank Marshall, Jr., Chatham, secretary and treasurer. The president appointed J. H.
Spencer, H. C. Lester, G. B. Dudley, and Rev. W. H. Boal, all of Martinsville, the Evangelizing Board for the next convention year. This board has charge of all missionary work done in the district. The convention will meet next year at Muscleville, Pittsylvania county, the latter part of next July.

DESPERATE CUTTING AFFRAY

A Meeting in Roanoke in the Interest of Bowman for Congress.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

ROANOKE, VA., July 26.—Thursday night a desperate cutting affray occurred in the back creek neighborhood of Roanoke county. The participants were Robert Ridgeway, an old man with one leg and one eye, and Dave Weaver, a young man. The latter was cut in the side and is in a serious condition, and Ridgeway was cut on the hands, face and body. He was arrested here to-day and lodged in Roanoke county jail.

There was a Bowman meeting at Assembly Hall to-night.
Brief speeches were made by A. P.
Staples and others.

Boy Accidentally Shot.
(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

FARMVILLE, VA., July 26.—A small colored boy was accidentally shot here this afternoon by Mr. V. D. Venable.
He was standing near the work-shop of Mr. Venable while the latter was repairing a pistol. The pistol went off while in Venable's hands, and the ball striking the boy's head, the mouth, breaking his jaw-bone and knocking out several teeth.
The negro's name is Andrews and lives on the farm of Judge Asa D. Watkins.

LESSITER WANTS VERIFIED COUNT

Southall Has No Objection to Awaiting Official Confirmation.

GEO. W. PHILLIPS ARRESTED

He Was Thought to Have Gone to Chicago, but Went Immediately to His Home at Weldon, Where He Was Taken.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

PETERSBURG, VA., July 26.—While everybody concedes the nomination of Hon. R. G. Southall for Congress in this district, the actual result of the primary election will not be declared "officially" until all the returns are verified from the poll books. This was the decision of the district committee, who met here last night to count the vote, and this decision was made on the request of friends of Major Lassiter, who wanted action and verified returns—not mere abstracts.
This request was not objected to by Mr.
Southall or his friends.

It will be some days, therefore, before all the poll books from all the precincts in the district can be collected for verification.

PHILLIPS ARRESTED.

George W. Phillips, wanted in Petersburg for a felony, was arrested last night in Wilmington, N. C., the place of his home. It was thought when he left from the city that he had gone to Chicago, but instead he went directly home. He is charged with stealing money and jewelry from Mrs. Jessie Lambert. He will be indicted by the grand jury on Monday, and immediately forwards requisition papers will be applied for to have him brought back to Petersburg.

George Wright, a negro, convicted at the present term of the Hustings Court of setting fire to his wife's home, was taken to the penitentiary to-day to serve a term of five years.

PEANUT SYNDICATE.

It was reported recently that a syndicate of capitalists was endeavoring to buy up the peanut factories in this city and in the eastern section of the State.
It is not believed that the scheme will be successful. It has been tried and failed before. At least the dealers in Petersburg have not yet gone into the deal.

Rev. Dr. O. S. Bunting, of St. Paul's Church, and Rev. John Ridout, of Grace Church, are away on their summer vacation.

The farmers in this section report a splendid prospect for crops of all kinds.
They were evidently too busy attending these crops to vote to any extent at the late primary.

Randall received a telegram today from Detective Tomlinson, announcing the arrest in Richmond of Decker Randall, a negro, who is wanted here for a felony, and for whom the police have been looking for some time.

ASH BARRELS IN COURT

They Figured in Proceedings in Police Court Yesterday.

Ash barrels figured in the proceedings of the Police Court yesterday. Several citizens of prominence indicated that they will enter a protest against the law requiring them to remove their ash barrels and refuse boxes from alleys adjoining their houses or places of business. A test will be made of certain questions, and the City Attorney will be called in to render a decision.

One of the gentlemen declared that he had no place to put his barrel unless he stored it away in his front parlor, and he wanted to find out definitely if he was to be forced to do that. Another said that his was a blind alley, which ran only a part of way through the square, and he thought he had the right to use it in that case. Still another wanted to have the whole question passed upon, so that there might be no trouble in the future.

Among those summoned to appear on the charge of obstructing the alley were several well-known people. One of them had removed the obstruction at his place and he was discharged. The cases of the others were continued until next Saturday, when the City Attorney will be present.

The only case of any special interest was that of Warren T. Wyant, charged with being drunk and disorderly and with throwing stones at the residence of Mrs.
A. Glonetti. Mr. Wyant said the Glonetti clan had been persecuting him and his wife and that they had injured the latter. On the other hand, Mr. Glonetti said Wyant had abused her, and called her ugly names and had thrown stones at her house, breaking several windows. Mr. Wyant was fined $25.

The case of Arthur Hayes, charged with allowing one of his men to overdrive a team of horses, was continued until next Tuesday.
